Let's check it out below together and try to resolve it!

Tricky Math & Logic Riddle: Can You Solve it?

"When I was 4 years old, my brother was half my age. Now, I'm 18. How old is my brother?"

Come on, let's try and solve it. Did you manage to do it? How much time did it take?

If you're still struggling, don't worry... you're not the only one. A lot of people were also unable to do it.

If you thought the answer is 9 because it's half from 18; you're not entirely correct.

That's why we also offer the solution below.

THE ANSWER:

When this person was 4 years old, his brother was half his age, it means he was 2 years old. This means they were only 2 years apart. So, when this person had 18 years, his brother was 16.

The guess that it's 9 was not correct because it's not the logical solution. Don't worry, when you get it explained like this, the next time you'll have so much less trouble solving these!
