Can You Locate the tiny Snowman in this Wintery Puzzle?

Dudolf is famous for his seek-and-find picture games on which he illustrates a lot of similar objects with a nearly similar one included too that we should try and find.

He hid a polar bear in a sea of ghosts for Halloween and a mouse among squirrels for Thanksgiving and now, a tiny snowman for the upcoming Christmas holidays.

Although it may seem easy and straightforward at first, you may actually think twice when you start to look for it. Your eyes may start feeling heavy and you'll notice yourself going up and down, left and right, bottom to top.
