The family of the child shared shocking photos of the party on social media which showed the girl dressed up and standing behind a table with gifts with a sign that said 'baby on board'.

The step dad of the girl, Horacio Insaurralde, who's 31 is alleged to have raped the child in the beginning of 2020 in their home in Monte Caseros after the girl moved in with her mother at his place.

The mother is no longer with this man and moved out with her daughter. However, 3 months later, the grandma of the girl noticed that the girl's belly is growing.

Doctors confirmed she was pregnant.

The Girl Didn't Undergo an Abortion, despite Being of Young Age & Being Raped

Abortion in Argentina is illegal however, the family hoped to use a law which makes exemptions for victims of rape.

But, their family doctor reportedly advised them against terminating the pregnancy as the girl was already in the 24th week of pregnancy.

In the meantime, the Prophetic and Apostolic Ministry Church of Monte Caseros organized a baby shower for the child mother-to-be.

The priest of the church assured the media that this celebration respected the measures for protection from covid-19 and so only the closest relatives were present.

Believe it or not, the girl was seen posing with a child pushchair and a teddy bear. Then, 2 days after the baby shower, she travelled 300 miles to the Neonatal Eloisa Torrense de Vidal Hospital.

The doctors were initially worried and carried out a C-section as the girl was still underdeveloped to be able to naturally deliver the baby.

The girl did give a birth to a healthy boy.
