Every challenge and problem we face helps us get closer to what's for us.

If we weren't blessed now, we will be in the future. It's important to learn to trust the process and sometimes, learn things the harder way.

But, believe, this is all a part of a bigger, important plan.

You may not be able to see or even understand the plan, but when it happens and you're playing things back, you'll realize how everything had a goal.

Every little dot came together and you've achieved a meaningful thing.

Rest assured that the things for you won't miss out on you, no matter how long it takes-it's for YOU. This is what belief and faith do; they teach us that every challenge will bring a reward later.

God and destiny, call it whoever you want to, is full with miracles.

Maybe you don't always believe in a grand plan or you think they have nothing to do with your wishes, but rest assured, what is yours will find you.
