And, ultimately, it led to the role in the Golden Girls-this secured White's place in the hearts of millions for good.

This show followed extensively the life of 4, elderly females and become one of the top-rated shows. It aired for 7 seasons and even won several awards, including one Emmy for White.

But, in addition to her acting career, White is also known for her charity work.

Betty White's Immense Love for Charity & Animals

White loves animals and has been working with the ZOO in Los Angeles and the Morris Foundation for more than 4 decades.

She also said that she feels like the luckiest woman in the world-half of her life she's been doing a job she loves and the other half is working with animals.

So, it comes as no surprise that she feels so at home around animals. One of the videos that especially caught Betty White's audience is the one where she sits casually next to a grizzly bear named Bam Bam in the Los Angeles ZOO.

She even gives the big bear a marshmallow and plants a kiss in his big fur! The video is indeed unique; we don't know many people who have one like this!

So, don't forget to check it out below and share it with your friends and family to make their day amazing:
